

Q2: ACCURACY SCAFFOLDS

Simple Structures for Clear, 50-Word Communication

1. INTRODUCING YOUR TOPIC

Use these to start one or two sentences clearly:

- ◆ Me gusta mucho... (I really like...)
- ◆ No me gusta nada... (I don't like... at all)
- ◆ Suelo ir / hacer... (I usually go / do...)
- ◆ Mi actividad favorita es... (My favourite activity is...)

2. ADDING TIME AND FREQUENCY

Use these to vary simple sentences (AO3 improvement):

- ◆ Todos los días / Cada fin de semana... (Every day / Every weekend...)
- ◆ Normalmente / A veces... (Normally / Sometimes...)
- ◆ Cuando tengo tiempo... (When I have time...)
- ◆ Para relajarme... (In order to relax...)

3. TEMPORAL VARIATION (Keep it optional for Q2)

While the present tense is safe, referencing the past or future once can help you express ideas fully (e.g., if a bullet point mentions travel).

- ◆ Template: El fin de semana pasado, fui a... (Last weekend, I went to...)

◆ Template: El próximo año, voy a viajar... (Next year, I am going to travel...)

Q2 CORE RULE: ONE SENTENCE, ONE BULLET

Do not try to combine two bullet points into one sentence. Write five simple, separate sentences to guarantee maximum coverage (5/5 AO2).
