El Ciberacoso es un Problema Serio (ANSWERS)

Secondary MFL

Name:

Date:

Reading Passage

El ciberacoso es cuando alguien te molesta o te intimida en internet. Es una forma de acoso en línea. Si te pasa a ti, no es tu culpa. Es importante hablar con un adulto, como tus padres o un profesor. No respondas a los mensajes. Puedes bloquear a la persona. Proteger tu privacidad y no compartir información personal ayuda a prevenir el ciberacoso.

Questions

1. What is cyberbullying?

Answer: when someone bothers or intimidates you on the internet

Note: The text says "cuando alguien te molesta o te intimida en internet."

[1 mark]

2. What is it a form of?

Answer: online harassment

Note: The text says "Es una forma de acoso en línea."

[1 mark]

3. Whose fault is it if it happens to you?

Answer: it is not your fault

Note: The text says "no es tu culpa."

[1 mark]

4. What is it important to do?

Answer: talk to an adult

Note: The text says "Es importante hablar con un adulto".

[1 mark]

5. What are two examples of adults you can talk to?

Answer: your parents OR a teacher

Note: The text says "como tus padres o un profesor."

[2 marks]

6. What should you NOT do with the messages?

Answer: respond to them

Note: The text says "No respondas a los mensajes."

[1 mark]

7. What can you do to the person?

Answer: block them

Note: The text says "Puedes bloquear a la persona."

[1 mark]

8. What two things can help prevent cyberbullying?

Answer: protecting your privacy OR not sharing personal information

Note: The text says "Proteger tu privacidad y no compartir información personal ayuda a prevenir el ciberacoso."

[2 marks]

9. What does "ciberacoso" mean?

Answer: cyberbullying

Note: Vocabulary from the text.

[1 mark]

10. What does "privacidad" mean?

Answer: privacy

Note: Vocabulary from the text.

[1 mark]